

Herewith is certified that

John Ndungu

participated in the workshop on Learning Intercultural Competence

Conducted from December 8 through December 10, 2017 in Windeck-Rosbach by the Center for Development Research (ZEF), University of Bonn, Germany.

The workshop covered the following areas:

- personal intercultural experiences and conflicts while living in Germany as a student from abroad
- stages of intercultural learning processes
- concept of culture as basis of intercultural communication
- conflicts in intercultural contexts

The seminar has a value of 0,8 credit points in the European Credit Transfer System (ECTS).

Bonn, December 10, 2017

Dr. Günther Manske
Academic Coordinator, ZEF

The workshop was funded by

DAAD

Deutscher Akademischer Austausch Dienst
German Academic Exchange Service

CERTIFICATE OF PARTICIPATION

John Ndungu

successfully completed the Interdisciplinary Course “Concepts and Theories of Development” during the Winter Term 2017/2018 and passed the written exam with the grade

Satisfactory (69%)

John Ndungu, as part of an international and interdisciplinary team of doctoral students, has also co-written the term paper entitled

Mainstreaming biodiversity conservation in agriculture: Policies analysis of the last ten years and the term paper was awarded with the grade

Good (82 %)

The course has a value of 15 credit points in the European Credit Transfer System (ECTS) and is the course module I of the Bonn International Graduate School for Development Research (BIGS-DR).

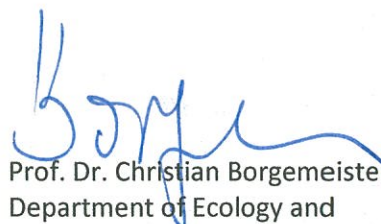

Bonn, 20 February 2018

Prof. Dr. Solvay Gerke Department of Political and Cultural Change

Prof. Dr. Joachim von Braun Department of Economics and Technological Change

Prof. Dr. Christian Borgemeister
Department of Ecology and Natural Resource Management