

ZEF Bonn

Job Advert

The West-African German Center for Sustainable Rural transformation (WAC-SRT) looks for a student assistant (SHK or WHF, up to 19 hours per week) from June to 31. December 2021.

The diverse and interesting tasks of the student assistant comprise:

- Communication with researchers from varied backgrounds and several countries, who are part of the DAAD African Excellence initiative
- Support to the organization of an interdisciplinary digital research fair
- Assisting in implementation and documentation of the research fair
- Assisting project administration and reporting in regard to the research fair
- Literature searches

You will be part of the nice, multi-disciplinary and international atmosphere at ZEF. While you might enjoy less of it working from home, given current pandemic restrictions, you still will be constantly in contact with a diverse group of international researchers via zoom or other digital media for the organization, execution and reporting of the conference.

Application requirements are:

- Being a registered student in Bachelor (SHK) or master (WHF)
- Excellent German and English language skills
- Good communication and interpersonal skills
- Strong intercultural competence
- Good command of Microsoft Office (Word, Power Point, Excel, Outlook)
- Excellent skills to work with Zoom (and alike softwares), knowledge of their technical possibilities and potential challenges
- Fluency in using and working with social media
- Excellent organisation skills
- Ability to work flexibly and independently

Applications (including CV, letter of motivation, letters of reference) should be sent ASAP until 22.04.2021 via e-mail to the following address:

Dr. Wolfram Laube

Zentrum für Entwicklungsforschung (ZEF)

Genscherallee 3

53113 Bonn.

Tel.: ++49 (0)228-73-4914

e- mail: wlaube@uni-bonn.de

Information about the project can be found here.